RENEWED ACTIVITY IN THE MANCHESTER MARKET.

Paul de Cassagnac Censured---The Famine in Silesia and Saxony--Steamship Ashore.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The Times' financial article says: "The Industry Cotton Spinning Company, owners of large mills at Oldham, have gone into liquidation in consequence of the depression in trade.

The Manchester Guardian says the renewed activity and upward movement in cotton has compelled producers to raise quotations a point, but the market has not responded. There has been some little buying in two or three departments at Tuesday's rates, but on the whole business was very light. Indian and China merchants still hold off, and the advance above mentioned has further widened the gap between sellers and buyers.

A Paris dispatch states that in a debate in the Chamber of Deputies last night, M. Paul de Cassagnac was formally censured by the House for refusing to retract the insult offered M. Jules Ferry, minister of instruction.

The famine in upper Silesia is so serious that in many villages over one-third of the population are starving. A famine of great distress is appearing in Saxony among the peasants and weavers.

A Cabul dispatch reports the Governor of Maidan killed by a party of Afghan regulars and hill men. The governor of Kohcastan and Logar Valley are menaced with the same fate.

The steamer Anglian, of New York for Glasgow, was stranded in a snow storm near Pladda, a low rocky island, of Scotland, in the frith of Clyde, off the south end of the island of Aarion. It is expected she will get off. The vessel makes no water.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 5.—The steamer Arizona of New York for Liverpool, which was seriously damaged by a collision with an iceberg, passed Fastnet this morning on her way to this port.

"Tally."

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 5.—Wm. B. Forwood, President of the Chamber of Commerce of Liverpool, England, was introduced on 'Change to day, and made a short address in which he said he had made an extensive tour of the cotton States, and though it was somewhat hazardous to attempt to estimate the cotton crop of this country, he was satisfied the increase this year would be between two and three hundred thousand bales. He was glad it was being gathered, packed and shipped in better order than ever before. He congratulated the city and the whole country on its prosperity.

Official Choking.

THE INDIAN BUREAU.

An Interview With Mr. Scales, of North Corolina.

Washington Republican, 5th.

"General," said the Republican ambassador to General Scales, chairman of the House Committee on Indian Affairs, "it is said that you intend at an early day to introduce a bill for the transfer of the Indian Bureau to the War Department."

"Yes," replied the General; "but that is not exactly the way to put the case. I propose to introduce a resolution first calling for an inquiry into the facts of the Ute insurrection. If the facts indicate that the blame should rest with the agents of the Indian Bureau then it will be time enough to take other steps."

"You mean, I suppose, to introduce a bill for the transfer?"

"Yes, if the facts shall warrant it."

"Do you think it would pass?"

"Well he replied, with some hesitancy "I cannot say. You see the trouble is whenever this question is brought up we have the whole religious element of the country to combat, and that influence is of course very strong, because it operates through the religious institutions and societies in every direction. All of the agencies are under the control of one or another of the religious denominations. They practically dictate all the points in the service, and in this way run the machine. Whenever we tread on their corns by proposing to transfer to the army we hear a universal shriek."

"Do you think the present control and methods accounts for the general demoralization?"

"That, perhaps, is drawing it a little strong. I would not like to make any such statement as that. To take human nature as a fact, you will find that whatever men's professions may be, they generally forget them, unless restrained by the proper surrounding. These agencies have a way of neglecting their church duties when exposed to the temptations of life on the plains, and I think they always will. You must surround them with the influence of Christian civilization if you expect to keep them pure in heart."

"What about the influence of the army? Is it not strong?"

"Yes; but not so powerful, as the influence of the church. However, we will get the facts first about the recent trouble, and then proceed to act."

Eagles Killed.

Chatham Record.

Alexander W. Leonard, of Bear Creek township, recently missed one of his geese, which he found in the woods dead and partly eaten up. In order to catch the thief he set several steel-traps near the remains of the goose, and going there next day he found an eagle caught in two of the traps. It measured six feet ten inches from tip to tip. Ad. Burns, of this county, also killed an eagle last week that measured seven feet from tip to tip. We are surprised to hear of so many eagles being in this county.

A New York confectioner has just forwarded to Madrid, Spain, a first shipment of one hundred pounds of choice late caramels, which have been ordered for the special use of the household of King Alfonso. A movement to present a purse of $250,000 to General Grant is reported by the Cincinnati Commercial. It is added that it is to be the gift of divers gentlemen in the East, who, placing a high estimate on the public services of the General, wish to make his old age comfortable, and relieve him from the necessity of accepting a professional post for support.

The News, the Mormon church organ, says it does not think that the expressions of the President in his message will have the slightest effect toward the solution of the Mormon question or the suppression of polygamy. The Tribune says if the nation permits the polygamist, George Q. Cannon, to sit in Congress undisturbed during the present session, it deserves the contempt of the Mormons.

Death of Two Old Citizens.

Elizabeth City Economist.

During the recent cold weather two of Currituck's oldest citizens, living on Powel's Point closed their pilgrimage on earth to enter upon eternal life. John Bunnel was eighty-five years, two months and seven days old on the day of his death. William White was within a few months of eighty-five years. We knew both of these venerable patriarchs; John Bunnel slightly, and "Uncle Billy White" quite intimately. They were both natives of Currituck county, and both respected and exemplary citizens. Mr. Bunnel had for some time shown the infirmities of age. Mr. White was a true specimen of "an old man with a young heart." He was a devout member of the Methodist Church and a sincerely religious man. There was a cordial, whole-souled heartiness about the old man, a charitable and kindly view of human life, a capacity for enjoyment, so rare in one so old, and an expression of trust and generous sympathy with his fellow men, that won upon us from the first.

OUR MIDNIGHT REPORT.

LIVERPOOL COTTON BROKERS' CIRCULAR.

The Rise in Cotton---The President of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce at Cincinnati.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 5.—This week's circular of the Liverpool Cotton Brokers' Association, says: "Cotton was in moderate demand. It was rather dull early in the week, and prices declined; but Thursday's business was extensive and prices slightly advanced as compared with the close of last week. American declined 1-8d. early in the week, but it became excited on Thursday and prices rose 3-16d., or 1-16d. since last week. Sea Island continues in good demand and firm. Futures opened dull and continued quiet until Monday evening, when prices declined 3-32d., but on Tuesday the demand improved and the market has since gained strength. Thursday there was some excitement and a very extensive business was done. The final rates are 3-16d. to a farthing above last Thursday's prices.

LATE STATE NOTES

New Berne Democrat.

While at the market our attention was called to some of the finest oysters we have seen in any market; they were from Broad Creek and would open nearly if not quite six quarts to the bushel. We stood by and saw nearly a bushel opened, and not a poor one in the whole lot did we see. Prawns were in abundance again, and were selling from twenty to twenty-five cents per peck.

One of our draymen, who drives a blind horse, left him standing on the market wharf. During the absence of the driver the horse became restless, and in his wanderings he fell overboard. Fortunately, where he took his involuntary bath the water was quite shallow, and hence nothing serious was the result of his plunge. What is a little singular, while the horse went overboard the cart became jammed and remained on the wharf. With the aid of a goods box and door, the horse was speedily extricated, and was led up from the vasty deep none the worse for wear.

Tarboro Southerner.

L. D. Bullock, in Edgecombe county, near Rocky Mount, raised from one pumpkin seed, 298 pounds of pumpkin—one pumpkin weighing one hundred and twenty-five pounds.

Dr. J. W. Jones, of Tarboro, has sent to the museum of Trinity College a collection of specimens of Indian relics picked up by his boys while spending the summer in Franklin county.

Tarboro is surely with rapid strides gaining the front rank in her list of burglaries. On Friday night last, the store of Mr. O. C. Farrar was entered by some person, who cut the sash from a back window, crawled through, cut and pried the bolt from the accountant's desk, and abstracted therefrom several dollars.

Southern Home.

A Northern mining company has bought property near the Air-Line junction, about a mile from the city and will immediately commence the erection of works for smelting the ores in which this country abounds. The capacity of the works will be twenty tons a day.

William Marshall, of Berryhill township, milked two cows from March 1st, to December 1st, and sold two hundred pounds of butter at an average of twenty cents per pound. A family of six persons were also supplied with butter, exclusive of the butter sold. The cows are common stock, not blooded. This seems to show the benefits of the stock law.

Chatham Record.

One night last week J. H. Hinshaw, who resides at Dixon's Mill, in this county, lost forty-seven nice chickens. The next night he set a steel-trap and caught the thief—which proved to be a large mink.

That notorious desperado, Sandy Clark (col.), who has been plundering, stealing and shooting in this and Moore county for sometime past, was arrested last week in the store of J. M. Stinson, near the Gulf, and was carried to Moore county jail.

Salem Press.

Sanford Lyon, a negro horse thief, has been caught by L. V. Alspaugh, of this county, and Albert Miller, of Davie, while shucking corn near Leaksville. He confessed to having stolen the horse of Jos. Hendricks, recently, and is now in Mocksville jail.

Robert J. Bell, at High Point, was engaged in moving on Thursday last, and in coming down the steps with an old fashioned wheat cradle, fell, and in the fall the blade struck him across the right wrist, severing the arteries of that arm. He bled profusely, and it would have been a serious thing but for the timely assistance rendered by Mr. A. B. Smith and his clerk.

JOHNSTON.

CLAYTON, Dec. 5.—The weather is cloudy and foggy. Rain yesterday.

At the residence of Mr. Thomas Sullivant yesterday at 2 o'clock P. M., Mr. Robt. Wood and Miss Mary A. Wall, by N. G. Gully, J. P., were married. The Wall is Wood; and we hope they may do a great deal of good in the world.

Rev. J. F. Butt preached in the Methodist church in this place on Tuesday night, the 2d instant.

Rev. R. H. Whitaker will deliver a temperance lecture at Clayton Lodge, on Tuesday night, the 9th instant. After the lecture the Lodge of I. O. G. T. will hold a meeting for the purpose of initiating candidates; and after the Lodge adjourns the members present will participate in an oyster supper. We hope every one present may have "a nice time."

FORSYTH.

WINSTON, Dec. 3.—The weather is clear and pleasant. Business rather precarious since the fire.

Sandy Gillis the negro whose skull was cracked the other night, is all right again. If the wound had been on the finger or heel, he would doubtless have died. The first negro has yet to be killed by a blow upon the head.

The house of Mr. Poole on Liberty street was entered the other morning while all were in another room, and a trunk ramsacked, but the thief was discovered before he could procure much. He made his escape.

Rev. Mr. Carraway preached his farewell sermon last Sabbath in the M. E. Church, and started this evening to attend the conference. He may and probably will return to this place next year.

Rev. R. H. Mills of the M. P. Church leaves with his family this week for his new field in Greensboro. Mr. Mills has filled the pastorate of the church here very efficiently; his congregation and friends regret his departure.

The funeral of Mr. Atwood, whose tragic death was mentioned in the NEWS some weeks ago, was preached at Mt. Tabor last Sabbath by Rev. Mr. Helsebee.

Our town presents quite a bad appearance since the destructive fire fiend played his destroying game.

The merchants have all succeeded in getting their goods housed, but the damage they received, will injure the sale of the entire stock, so that it will cause them to close out at reduced rates.

S. D. Franklin & Co., clothing and dry goods men will be able to get back into their store in a few days, but are badly damaged.

Hodgin and Sullivan moved back to-day; also did Mr. Black Griffith. Moore & Co. moved in a vacant store house, and Dr. Thompson did the same.

Dr. Thompson reports a very loss in breakage, many barrels of oil and other liquids having been lost in the breakage. He had $3,000 on his building and $3,000 on his stock, and thinks that if the insurance companies do their duty and the standing walls of the store can be used, he may get reinstated without much loss. All are sufficiently covered with insurance to be safe if the company do their duty. Certainly every exertion was made to save all. Even ladies of wealth, both married and single, besides little girls and boys, carried buckets of water heroically, while some stalwart able bodied men, white and colored, be it to their shame stood by and rendered no assistance. Yet many men of both colors worked most ardently. To the people of Salem Winston owes a debt of lasting gratitude, for never did a set of people lend a more needed and unselfish assistance, and to them and their engines and reservoir is due the preservation of the remaining stores on that block. The excitement for a while was terrific. The ringing of bells, the beating of drums, the hoarse voices of the firemen, the roaring of the flames, the rattling of drays and wagons and the continued noise of the thousands present, added to the scene. Many persons were so excited as to commit the most ludicrous blunders. For instance one party is said to have thrown three boxes of glass down from the third story of Hodgin and Sullivan's store, and then to have carried down in his arms and deposited safely in the square, a bundle of leather or old shoes. One thievish countryman loaded his wagon with goods and started for home, but the police caught him and locked him up. We trust that this catastrophe may prove a salutary lesson to our authorities and citizens, and that a fire company and water works may be at once organized and prepared.

It is impossible to ascertain how the fire originated. Dr. Thompson says there was no fire in his store that morning, and his stove pipe runs up into a flue in the chimney. As the door in the hall of the Y. M. C. A. was not locked, it may be that a tramp slept there that night and left fire burning, which rolled out and caught.

GREENE.

WILLOW GREEN, Dec. 3.—Weather is warm and very dry. Crops all housed and cotton generally sold.

Trade is somewhat dull in the county owing to scarcity of funds.

To-day at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Taylor Barrow, by the Rev. J. W. Simpson, Mr Paineas Carr and Miss Ursula Barrow, all of Greene.

The negro exodus fever is yet unabated in this county. They go helter skelter to the far west without rudder or compass. They have the power of locomotion, but not of volition. One hundred voters leaving the county will make her Democratic. The white Rads will quake and tremble in the cool.

H.

WAKE.

WAKE FOREST, Dec. 4.—The interest in our village in the onward march still increases and the prospect grows brighter every day. Our people are becoming more energetic and enthusiastic in all their work since the progress of the college has become so interesting.

The chapel building, or memorial hall, will soon be covered in, as they will soon commence that part. The walls are quite done already. Mr. Allen will certainly finish it by the spring on account of the great need existing for it. When it is done what institution will have more recitation rooms or a more convenient and spacious chapel?

Several buildings are in process of erection, one for Major W. W. Dickson, by Jacob S. Allen, and another for our President, Dr. Pritchard, by Ellington & Royster.

The Rev. A. D. Blackwood will remove from this place, where he has been keeping a boarding house, to his place near Raleigh. We are sorry for him to leave us. It occurs on account of the sale of property which he rents.

The meeting here continues to grow in interest. About twelve have professed faith in Jesus, and as many more inquirers. The services are conducted mainly by Dr. Pritchard and Professor Royall. They expect a minister to arrive soon who will assist them in the work.

The second senior speaking of the present class occurs on the 13th inst. A large crowd is expected. We always have nice times on these occasions, besides the profit accruing therefrom.

To-day there was a gloom cast over our people by the death of Mr. J. E. Cheaves, a student, which occurred at 12 o'clock last night. He was sick only a short time. We mourn his loss, and can truly say,

"Ne'er was there to the halls of death conveyed,
A fairer spirit or more welcome shade."

Let the sad affliction be for good to his kindred and friends. He is gone to rest.

J.

Last Friday night, after Flora & Brocket had closed their store, it was discovered that they had locked a colored man in, who had concealed himself on the second floor. He was taken out and jailed.

Mr. Charles Robinson's horse ran away with his delivery cart. No particular damage done aside from breaking down a few gates.

Mrs. Amsey Thornton's residence has been burned. Loss $2,000. No insurance. Cause, a defective flue.

There was a ball at the Albemarle House on the night of the 27th.

THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

RECEPTION OF REPORTS ON VARIOUS MATTERS.

The General Sunday School Interest—Religious Papers—Elected to Diaconate Orders.

Reported for the NEWS.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

Conference opened at 9 o'clock, with religious services conducted by the Rev. Joseph Wheeler. The roll was called, and the Secretary then read a report from the Publishing House at Nashville. The report was then referred to the Committee on Books and Periodicals.

A lengthy report from Dr. A W Wilson, Missionary Secretary, at Nashville, was read, which was referred to the Committee on the Missionary Cause.

A letter was also read from Dr. O. P. Fitzgerald, editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate.

The attention of the Conference was called to the general Sunday school interest by Dr. W. E. Cunygham, who has charge of the Sunday school literature of the church at Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. J. B. McFerrin, book agent, represented the publishing house in a short address. There is every hope, under the skillful management of Dr. McFerrin, that the publishing house will soon be out of debt. The Doctor gave notice that he would have more to say on this subject before the Conference closed. In speaking of the Nashville Advocate, he said they must have 30,000 subscribers; that under the editorial control of Dr. Fitzgerald it was giving general satisfaction, and that it seemed to him that he was an editor "to the manor born."

Dr. Sled, of Richmond, and member of the Virginia Conference, addressed the Conference in the interest of the Theological and Homiletic Monthly, edited by him and published at Richmond.

The question who remain on trial was taken up and the following passed their annual examination of character and being approved by the examining committee were elected to Deacons Orders, to-wit: The Revs. A. P. Tyre, N. E. Cobrain, W. P. McCorkle, R. C. Beeman, P. L. Groom, J. H. Cordon, C. M. Gentry, George Hardison and W. B. Doub.

Bishop Wightman addressed the class in a very happy manner, directing his remarks more particularly to prayer, faith and study. A more practical talk I never heard on any occasion.

Dr. Clark, who is agent for the Monumental church at Savannah, Georgia, addressed the Conference, setting forth the progress of his work. Dr. Clark was appointed agent by the General Conference in behalf of this enterprise. The church is being built in memory of John Wesley. Savannah is selected because that is the only place John Wesley ever preached in America, and the place where the first Sabbath school ever established in the world was organized by the sainted Wesley. Dr. Clark lectures to-night on John Wesley and Methodism. Suitable resolutions offered by Dr. Brown were passed indorsing the enterprise in which Dr. Clark was engaged.

The President of Trinity College read his annual report, which was referred to the Committee on Education.

Doctors McFerrin and Craven made remarks concerning the Quarterly Review.

The Rev. Mr. Whitaker, of the Protestant M. E. Church, was introduced to the Conference and invited to a seat within the bar.

You will observe from my report, thus far that apparently little has been done. The work of an Annual Conference is largely done in the committee room and with the Bishop and his council. This work has been going on, and some of us will know very soon the strength of that power behind the throne, where some poor circuit, to all outward appearances, must afflict (and perhaps be afflicted) a circuit rider. But there are not many Methodist preachers like the children of Israel were, when they hung their harps upon the willow trees, and said how can we sing in a strange land, but whenever they are sent they have a strange consciousness that they are not on strange soil, for the world is their parish. So in nearly every land where human foot has trod from Chaldea to Alaska, the song of Zion rolls as a sweet lullaby to a weary world, and the Methodist preachers will have some part in that grand chorus.

THE PENDER MURDER CASE.

Trial of Allen Mathis for the Murder of Reuben Herring.

Wilmington Star, 4th.

The case of Ailen Mathis, colored, charged with the murder of Reuben Herring, near Burgaw, in Pender county, in September of last year, and which was removed from that county to New Hanover for trial, came up before the Superior Court yesterday.

The chief witness for the State was Lucy Herring, the widow of the murdered man. From the testimony of other witnesses it appeared that she was the cause of ill feeling between her husband and Mathis; that the latter had been committed to jail on a charge of adultery with her, preferred by her husband, and that when released he had threatened to kill Herring. She herself testified that on the day of the murder she had gone to Mathis' house, and was there when she saw her husband approaching; Mathis also saw him and called to him to go back, and taking his gun down from over the door ran to Herring and struck at him several times, but Herring avoided the blows; Mathis then returned to the house, and taking an axe, followed after Herring, who was leaving the premises, and overtaking him, struck him twice, knocking him down. Mathis then approached witness, and said to her that she had seen it, and that if she told who had killed her husband the would break her neck. She then went home, and the next day Mathis stated to her that he had buried Herring's body in White Oak Swamp. About seven weeks afterward, however, the body was found in an old well on Mathis' premises by parties who were engaged in the search, and was fully identified as the remains of the missing man.

At the Coroner's inquest Lucy Herring made affidavit on the first day that Mathis said he had killed Herring, and buried him in the swamp; but on the next day she stated that she was present and saw her husband killed by Mathis, as above related.

There were no witnesses for the defense.

Mr. Edward Boykin, of Sampson, and Messrs. Bruce Williams and John T. Bland, of Pender, were the counsel for the prisoner, with Captain Swift Galloway Solicitor for the State.

Mr. Williams spoke first in behalf of the prisoner, and was followed by the Solicitor, after which Mr. Boykin addressed the jury in a fine effort. After a plain and lucid charge by His Honor, Judge Eure, the jury retired to their room about 7:30 P. M., and the court adjourned, the Judge leaving instructions that he should be called if the jury found a verdict. They remained out only about an hour, however, when His Honor was summoned, the prisoner was brought from jail, the court assembled, and the jury, through their foreman, pronounced the prisoner guilty of murder.

In response to the question if he had anything to say why the sentence of the law should not be pronounced against him, Mathis responded "No"; and Judge Eure, in a solemn and impressive manner, then sentenced him to be taken back to the jail of this county, there to remain, and to be taken thence on Friday, the 9th day of January, 1880, between the hours of 11 A. M. and 2 P. M., and hung by the neck until dead.

Could Have Waited Patiently.

Rochester Herald.

The President's message was stolen in Washington and sold to the New York Times and the Chicago Times and the Chicago Tribune. It was published in those papers Sunday morning. Some one has been pretty sharp, but the whole affair is disreputable. The papers which got left, however, which comprise nearly the entire press of the country, have the satisfaction of knowing that the message was not worth stealing or paying for. It is a document which we publish out of consideration for many of our readers, but which we could have waited patiently for if it had not arrived in one hundred and fifty years.

Large Birds.

Chatham Record.

While on our way from Randolph last week we saw at Marley's Mills the heads, necks, wing, and foot of the largest and strangest birds that we ever met with. They were two in number, and were shot in the mill pond by Thomas Marley. They were perfectly white, would weigh about twenty-five pounds apiece, measured seven feet and four inches from the tip of one wing to the other, had necks over a foot long, and large web-feet. They resembled the goose more than any other bird.

Horse Thief Caught.

Fayetteville Gazette.

Mr. T. H. Sutton got his man at last—Wright Evans, the rascal who deliberately went to his stable and carried off his horse and buggy one night a few weeks since. Mr. Sutton paid out at least $200 in his efforts to capture the thief, and was determined not to cease, in his exertions, until Evans was arrested and brought to justice.

What Is a "Brunswick Stew?"

The Raleigh papers, in notices of big dinners in that section, make frequent mention of a dish they call "Brunswick Stew." What is a Brunswick Stew?—Charlotte Democrat.

For the benefit of our unenlightened contemporary the manner of building this delectable dish is herewith furnished: A "Brunswick Stew" proper is made of squirrels cut up and boiled in clear water until they boil to pieces; then add corn, tomatoes, a little onion, butter, red and black pepper and salt, according to the taste of the majority. When it arrives at a consistency somewhat thicker than soup dish it up. For a substitute chickens are used. They want to be boiled to shreds and boned. A "Brunswick" never wants to be boiled in a kitchen—it loses its piquant flavor. It wants to be cooked in the woods, near a good spring, and during the process of cooking the prospective partakers, in order to enhance the enjoyability of the feast, should, according to the experience of old "Brunswick" experts, line their throats with five or six drinks of good whisky. The foregoing recipe is the one used by Mr. J. D. Pullen, the famous caterer of the private picnic clubs in existence hereabout. Don't forget that jokes and good stories serve as entremets.

A MAN IN MID AIR.

A STRANGE SIGHT WITNESSED IN KENTUCKY.

He Assumes Various Attitudes. Makes Gestures, and Finally Disappears in Space.

The following curious circumstance occurred some three weeks ago in Bath county, Ky., and is related in one of the State papers:

A strange and inexplicable sight has been seen, and it has created a furor and excitement greater, if anything, than the world-wide celebrated shower of flesh which fell in this county several years ago. A report came to Owingsville that a man had been seen standing in mid air, at a point about six miles east of town; that he was making gestures of all kinds, and after staying there about half an hour, had suddenly ascended until he rose beyond the view of the naked eye.

A reporter started for the place where the object had been seen. He found the lady who had first seen it to be Mrs. Abraham Goodpastor, wife of a reputable farmer, and she a reputable lady. Her husband, Mr. Goodpastor, had gone to Fleming county to mill, and she was washing some clothes, when, on looking up, she saw over a field near by something like a man suspended in mid-air, about twenty feet above the tops of the trees. The figure was making gestures of all kinds, but spoke not a word. It would throw up its hands wildly, then fold its arms, then clasp its hands and drawing its knees up assume the attitude of prayer, and then commence its wild gestures again. When Mrs. Goodpastor first saw it she called to her mother-in-law, who lives with her, and she, too, came out and saw it, but was so frightened that she would not stay, but ran into the house and hid. Mrs. Goodpastor's family of children came out and with their mother continued to look at it for about twenty-five minutes, when all of a sudden the figure began to ascend and continued to rise until it had vanished from view.

The figure was tall and slender, with a long neck, and was seen distinctly by Mrs. Goodpastor, her mother-in-law, and her entire family, all of whom gave about the same description, and leave no doubt but that they saw something; but what it was, or who it was, they are unable to say. Mr. Goodpastor being away from home his mother, the elder Mrs. Goodpastor, took this figure as a certain omen of his death, and sent post haste for him by his two eldest sons, who were surprised to meet him on his way home well and uninjured.

James Leanus, a farmer living near Mr. Goodpastor's, also saw what he thought was a balloon, but saw no man in it. He stood and watched it for some time, when it was taken up from sight. A young son of one of the Otises also saw the same thing, but was unable to tell what it was.

Many inferences and conjectures as to what it was or might be have been made. A few believe that it was Professor Wise in his skeleton balloon, or some other aeronaut, and that in order to reach the ground, if possible, he had lowered himself from the car in the vain hope that he might be able to land in some of the tree tops.

Others turn to the opinion that it was a sign from heaven, but for what, they say not, while others hoot at the idea of its being anything, or of anything having been seen. As to the last opinion, it is clearly erroneous, as there is no doubt but what these people certainly saw something, as they could not all be mistaken, and while, had only one seen it the skeptics would have had good grounds for believing it was imagination on her part, yet such is not the case, seven persons having seen the same thing at the time, and they are all persons who can be believed. The matter has created great excitement, and Mrs. Goodpastor has been visited by a large number of persons, to one and all of whom she has told the same story. She attempts to make no explanations, has none to make, nor does she desire any. She gives the facts just as they appeared, and while she would be glad to know what it was that she saw, who it was, and what it meant, she makes no pretensions to such knowledge.

A Most Important Question.

Would your family be left unprovided for in the event of your death to-morrow? Can any man who is compelled to answer this question negatively neglect for a day the solemn duty of insuring his life for such an amount as he may be able to pay the premium upon? A few cents a day will at least secure his wife and children against absolute want. Every man should avail himself of the inestimable privilege of insuring while in health. Select a well-established, purely mutual company, wherein the policy-holders are the only members. None such have failed to fulfill their obligations to the widows and orphans of their policy-holders. Such an one is the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. It has paid to policy-holders and their representatives since its organization over eighty millions of dollars. It has a surplus above all liabilities of three and a half millions of dollars, after meeting the requirements of the most rigid State laws. Its ratio of expense of management to receipts is lower than that of any other company in the United States, viz: 6.57 per cent., and its ratio of dividends to premiums received larger, viz: premiums received for ten years aggregating $72,660,775, its dividends to policy-holders amounting to $27,885,789, the ratio being 38.38. The Mutual Benefit comes next, having a ratio of 36.04, followed by the Mutual Life, with a ratio of 28.22. For further information and policies, apply to S. D. Wait, General Agent. Office: four doors south of Yarboro House.

What They Say.

Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D., of Washington, D. C., certifies of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure: "I do not doubt that it has great virtue." Rev. C. A. Harvey, D. D., Secretary of Howard University, certifies that for Bright's disease "no other remedy can be held for one moment in comparison with this." E. W. Neff, of Detroit, Mich., certifies that it completely cured him of a very serious chronic liver complaint. J. H. Sherlock, of Rochester, N. Y., certifies that it cured him of Bright's disease of several years' standing, and that he believes it to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. These are samples of hundreds of other testimonials.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1879.

FROM present appearances Louisiana has gone Democratic despite the awe-inspiring presence of General Woodford.

THE policy of Mr. Bayard in advocating his resolution to put it beyond the power of anybody to impart a legal-tender value to a paper currency is the only true policy.

GENERAL SCALES, chairman of the House Committee on Indian Affairs, intends at an early day to introduce a bill for transfer of the Indian Bureau to the War Department.

THE Charlotte Democrat takes exception to the use of the words "boom" and "stalwart," classing them as slang words, and asking that "combination" be used in lieu of the first and "radical" for the second. To be sure they are slang words; and the most of daily conversation (not even excepting colleges) is couched in slang; women use the argot and slang phrases as much as men do. But where will you find a more expressive word than "boom" to convey the idea of a popular rush? and what word will so accurately describe the extreme radical wing of the Radical party (for conservative Republicans are few and far between) than their own sobriquet of "stalwart"?

"TARHEEL SCHOOLS."

The Boston Herald devotes a column and a half to the "Tarheel Schools." Referring to the present condition of the public schools the writer draws a pen picture of the state of the finances after the war, and takes occasion to remark the indifference of Southerners in the matter of popular education, which is such an important feature of Northern civilization. The writer in substance says that if anything goes wrong with the appropriations, or a special sum is badly needed, or some public improvement is proposed, the first effort made to obtain the money is to cut into the school fund—that there is a manifest readiness to sacrifice the school moneys before any others in an emergency.

He states that throughout the South are handsome academies and private schools where the Southern youth of wealthy parents were and are educated, and the feeling is that these are good enough and sufficient for all purposes at the present time. Referring to general taxation the writer states:

The man who can afford to educate his children here doesn't feel much interest in the education of the poorer classes, and resents being taxed for it. He prefers the old system of voluntary subscription to a pauper fund, which went toward enlightening the poor whites in the alphabet and the rule of three in its simplest form. North Carolina deserves the credit of having it said for her that she had, previous to the war the the best of these school systems. It was supported by a fund of thirty years' collection, amounting to $2,500,000. The war dissipated this and the schools have no fund now to speak of. The State appropriates a very insufficient amount, 8½ per cent. of its total taxes, for their support; but although aware of the wretched condition of its public educational interests, it has never occurred to these inactive people to establish a system of local option taxation, or district taxation, which is the basis and soul of public education in the North.

Of course, there is some truth in this; but at the same time it should not be forgotten that the State was taxed to death under the misrule of the carpet-baggers, and that she is but commencing to see her way clear out of the financial slough into which she had been led by those blatant reformers who came here at the close of the war shouting improvements that could only be made at the time by lavish expenditures, and gripping with both hands all the loose cash obtained through excessive taxation. Yet the spirit of progressiveness is rife, and great and needed reforms will doubtless be instituted as the condition of the people improves, for it must be remembered that heavy taxes are still the order of the day, and they fall heavily on the small property-holders; though with good crops, which under an improved mode of agriculture make better returns than formerly, the load will be perceptibly lightened.

That our people are alive to the importance of this subject is evidenced by the action of the last General Assembly which was rendered inoperative by an inexcusable blunder. Another year, though, will set this matter right. Still, it is not fair to contound the present spirit of our people with the showing made by the General Assembly of eleven years ago, which seems to be the text that the Herald correspondent has taken for his essay, as even the most thorough progressionist must admit that a tax-laden people cannot vault from the lowest round to the top in an unreasonable space of time.

The letter criticises the mode of appointments of teachers; refers to the non-existence of teachers' institutes (although we published the proceedings of the Johnston County Institute a short time since), and winds up with stating that North Carolina has little present hope of improvement in her schools.

THE GREENBACKERS.

Senator Bayard has taken a decided stand against continuing the legal-tender quality of the "greenbacks." He says he does not desire to decide the question of the volume of currency which the Government shall have; the object of his resolution is to forever put it beyond the power of anybody to impart a legal-tender value to a paper currency. "If," says he, "it had not been for this legal-tender quality there would have been no Greenback party, for that was born of the idea for paying for the Government bonds with greenbacks, which nobody would contend could be done if they did not possess this legal-tender power.

It will be seen by implication that Senator Bayard's estimate of the Greenback party places it on a low standing so far as its financial theories are concerned. There are, no doubt, many estimable gentlemen connected with that party, and who are thoroughly convinced of the soundness of its platform and its ideas. But the financiers of the country are not enrolled in that class, and the following scheme goes far to show that Senator Bayard has taken the right stand on the legal-tender question:

Iowa wouldn't be anything if she wasn't original, and next to the Hawk-eye man Congressman Weaver, a bright and shining light of the Greenback party, is the most original production of that State of original ideas. He has introduced into the House a bill which proposes to pay all ex-soldiers and sailors, non-commissioned officers, teamsters, artificers and musicians who served on the Union side in the late war the difference between the value of the currency in which they were paid and gold coin at the time of payment. He evidently has figured the thing up and estimates that it will take five hundred million greenbacks to meet the proposed payments, and therefore provides for an issue of that amount, in denominations, of ones, twos, fives, tens, twenties and fifties. He thus tickles the soldiers and sailors by proposing to pay them this amount, and at the same time carries out the favorite idea of the national party, which is to inflate the currency and issue an unlimited number of greenbacks.

But apart from the issue of this vast amount of money, the proposition is anything but an economical one in other respects. The bill arranges all the machinery for ascertaining the difference between the currency and the gold. The second auditor is to do it all. To carry out the provisions of the bill would require at least treble the force now employed in that office, and the examination of the claims (for every soldier and sailor who served or his legal representative would be a claimant) would occupy years of time, and involve an expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars. The scheme is one of the wildest that has been presented to any Congress. But there are, no doubt, men who would vote for it regardless of consequences, so long as they thought they were making a little capital among the soldiers.

LITERARY NOTICES.

The Atlantic Monthly is to contain more good things than ever, and in more inviting form. Beginning with the January number, it is to be printed from larger type on a page considerably larger than the former, and will be increased to 144 pages.

A new Serial Story, by Mr. Howells begins in the January number, and will run through six months or more. This is probably the most gratifying announcement that could be made to American magazine readers.

The fine life-size portrait of Dr. Holmes, which Messrs. Houghton, Osgood & Co. offer for a dollar to the subscribers for the Atlantic can hardly fail to have a very large circulation; certainly not, if the American people remember how much the wise and witty "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table" has contributed to the brightest and best and most entertaining portion of American Literature.

POLITICAL NOTES.

General Ewing thinks either ex-Governor Joel Parker, of New Jersey, or Senator David Davis would make an excellent Presidential candidate for the Democrats.

Hon. J. T. Updegraff, a Republican Congressman from Ohio, says that State will send a solid delegation for Sherman to the Republican national convention.

The Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer, heretofore one of Congressman Felton's warmest supporters, denounces his recent letter, and advises the people to turn their backs on him.

Senator Booth says the Republicans of California are decidedly in favor of Mr. Blaine for the Presidency. He says he is for Blaine—not that he loves Grant less, but Blaine more.

There are 51,659 voters registered for the municipal election in Boston, an increase of just 600 over the registry for the State election. There are 991 registered women voters.

Ex-Senator John B. Henderson, Republican, of Missouri, declares himself inflexibly opposed to Grant, and says if the Republicans nominate Grant and the Democrats Bayard, he will support the latter.

Mr. Baldwin, the new Senator from Michigan, thinks the Republicans of his State prefer Grant for the Presidency, though he predicts the election of any Republican that may be nominated.

Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist: "The people of Georgia and the South prefer a constitutional President, even though he may be a Republican, to a dictator, even though the dictator may be the godlike Grant."

Colonel Bob Ingersoll says that Grant can afford to regard the Presidency as a broken toy; that it would add nothing to his fame if he were again elected, and would add nothing to the debt of gratitude which the people feel that they owe him.

Secretary Sherman has taken pains to deny that he has expressed a preference for General Garfield, or for any one else, as Senator from Ohio, saying he has the highest respect for all the gentlemen who have been named in that connection.

The New Court Room.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

We dislike very much indeed to make complaints, but it does seem to us that the United States court room is one of the worst arranged we ever saw. The workmanship of the room is all that could be desired; but the location of the jury box is in the wrong place. The box is too small and very poorly arranged. The acoustics of the room are so bad that it is with difficulty you can hear anything distinctly, and last, but not least, they have placed two or three large ventilators in the middle of the ceiling, which pours the cold, foul air right down on the tops of everybody's head, which gives them colds, neuralgia, and other diseases. It would be a decided improvement to take these ventilators down which let in the foul air from the garret, and ventilate the room by lowering the top of a window.

We have heard various complaints in regard to the construction of this Federal court room, and it seems the lawyers would prefer our old courthouse or Metropolitan Hall to this disagreeable room.

Another Snake Story.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

I see in your issue this morning a snake story copied from the Wilmington Review. It brings to my recollection an incident I witnessed on the farm of W. H. Ponton, Esq., on Marsh Swamp in Halifax county, in 1848. Mr. Ponton is now residing near Weldon and will corroborate the facts.

He was always fond of hounds and hunting, and I guess he is yet. Among a number of hounds he had at the time mentioned was one he thought a great deal of. This hound went into a decline and nothing he could do for it did it any good. An old negro man on the place declared "the dog had snakes in him;" that he had seen dogs "in that way" and when they died and were cut open snakes were found on the liver.

As this hound was considered past recure, Mr. Ponton ordered his overseer a Mr. Wright, to take the dog outside the lot and shoot him, which he did. On opening the dog two snakes about fifteen inches long were found adhering to the liver. One of them was shot in two when the dog was killed, the other was perfect in form and alive when taken out. It was not determined to what species they belonged, but it was conjectured that they were moccasins, though they were not rough in appearance as that snake usually is, but looked soft and somewhat slimy.

I was on a visit to Mr. Ponton at the time and witnessed the cutting the dog open, saw the snakes, and turned them about with a stick, and can therefore vouch for the truth of the incident.

Professor Green, a distinguished allopathic physician, wrote to the Medical Journal to the effect that after all other means had failed he sent for the Kidney Cure, (now Safe Kidney and Liver Cure), and to his astonishment cured a serious case of Bright's Disease by administering it, and afterward found it equally beneficial in other cases. He advised his brother physicians to use it in preference to anything else for kidney diseases.

Halifax Cotton Notes.

Weldon News.

A few days ago we rode from Weldon to Scotland Neck, in a buggy, a distance of thirty miles, and we did not see as much as a bale of cotton in the field the whole distance. The whole crop in this section has been gathered and most of it has been sent to market and sold. The higher prices compared to last year saved the people from utter ruin.

We learn from a gentleman from Scotland Neck, that at Edward's Ferry a few days ago, one hundred bales of cotton were burnt. The cotton had been placed there for shipment. It belonged to different parties all of whom we hear had bills of lading from the Roanoke Transportation Company. The cotton was lying out on the ground and it is not known how the fire originated. There were one hundred and fifty bales. Fifty of them were saved.

Last week in the neighborhood of Scotland Neck Mr. Fred Lewter's gin house was burned to the ground, together with about two thousand pounds of lint, five thousand of seed cotton, and all the cotton seed which had accumulated during the season. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary, from the fact that no ginning or work of any kind had been done there that day and the building was some distance from any other house. There was no insurance, and Mr. Lewter loses the whole. This fire was in the immediate neighborhood of the place where Mr. W. H. Shields gin house was burned about two weeks ago, an account of which we gave at the time.

Shame.

Charlotte Democrat,

The Shelby Aurora states that there is an old man in the Poor House of Cleaveland county who has sixty grand-children. Can it be possible that there is not one among all that number of grand-children who could take care of the poor old man and make his last days pleasant and comfortable without letting him be on the county as a charity charge? The meanness of some people, oh how great!

But we are told that right here in Mecklenburg, people of property and who are well able to take care of their near kin, apply to the county commissioners for an allowance in money for their support.

Elizabeth City and Norfolk Railroad.

Elizabeth City Telegram.

Dr. Wm. Underwood, the contractor of the projected railroad between this place and Norfolk, left on last Saturday morning for Philadelphia.

The exact nature of his mission we know not, but rumor has it, that one Belleheimer of Pennsylvania, has given notice to Mr. J. Cook Jr., that he claims a controling interest in the Elizabeth City & Norfolk railroad, by virtue of an agreement between Roland Thompson and himself, and if he (Cook) ignores his claim and builds the road he may look out for breakers. Hence the summons for Mr. Underwood to repair to Philadelphia.

One Experience from Many.

"I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me, they said 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy.'"—The Mother. *

Behold Me a Well Woman.

CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family depencent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live! and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. TAGGART.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony, that her patient womanhood has been called upon to endure. She has suffered untold agonies and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayers of this grateful woman will ever be yours, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the thousands that favor the greatest of all modern discoveries, "Vegetine."

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I take great pleasure in recommending your Vegetine. I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease; trying every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Internal revenue receipts yesterday $696.54.

——Two marriage licenses were issued yesterday.

——Cotton: Middling 12¼. Beceipts 432 bales. Tone of markot firm.

——Joe Jefferson is billed for this city —or at least the bills are here.

——There is a rumor prevalent that Judge Bond will not be here on the 10th.

——Last week everyone was complaining of the dust. Now the mud is anathematised.

——Read the notice of "Estrayed," and see if you have the animal mixed up with yours.

——The treasurer's office was not overcrowded with applicants for new bonds and drummers' licenses yesterday.

——Only two drunks before the Mayor yesterday. "Uncle Dave" furnished them with quarters for the space of twelve hours.

——Job Osborn says that people who buy coal of him will get coal and not an oil well, and that his coal is of the everlasting variety.

——It is stated that there is a bible in pawn in a bar-room, put up by a colored man, who represented himself to be a preacher, for a drink of whisky.

——A worthy gentleman of this city has furnished an article corroborative of the Pender county snake story. The occurrences are singular, to say the least.

——There was a happy darkey perambulating the streets last evening. By the strength of his lungs it might safely be assumed that consumption has no terrors for him.

——Captain Fulghum, of the Greensboro Patriot, is in the city. He proposes to remain till Tuesday. The Captain is making a live paper of the Patriot, and it is to be hoped that he will be equally successful financially.

——A correspondent furnishes an article relative to the United States court room. It seems strange that the Government should have to pay good prices for public buildings throughout the land and have them turn out defective in all the essentials.

——The firm of Stronach & Belo, if it is a young concern, is apparently doing a fine business. Precisely the nature of the business they do can be discovered on reading their new advertisement this morning; and if that is not satisfactory, give them a call and see for yourself.

——Pomp Bryan, the bill-poster, has established a portrait gallery that extends all over the city. Blackwell, the "Durham Bull" man, occupies all the prominent places in it. Pomp has a happy knack of selecting the most sightly places to display his artistic handiwork.

——Application was made at the office of the register of deeds for a marriage license, the applicant being twenty years of age, and the prospective bride a little over fifteen. Some thirteen months ago she was married to her first husband, and since that time she has had one child and lost her original partner.

——Messrs. Johnston & Wiggs have become possessed of the insane idea that our city folk want something nice to eat on Christmas, and, therefore, have been stocking their store with the necessary material for a good dinner. Their new advertisement tells the story in a graphic manner.

——The weather was so badly mixed yesterday morning that it would have been impossible to discern whether or no Professor Proctor gave an exhibition of his star shower. Perhaps he postponed it once more on account of the weather. If so, as soon as the news is received the NEWS will announce it.

——Three little black scamps were hauled up before Justice Barbee yesterday morning for fighting and heaving "ground apples" at each other. The 'Squire recited Dominie Watts' hymn commencing "Let dogs delight to bark and bite," gave them a moral lecture, and then sent them home for a maternal application of shingle.

——The colored mechanics of this city purpose holding a meeting at the court house on Wednesday evening next for the purpose of making arrangements for the celebration of the 17th anniversary of the day that the Emancipation Proclamation went into effect. The 1st day of January will be a double holiday for the colored people.

A Constant Source of Wonder.

Why is it that the winners of the prizes in the Louisiana State Lottery Company always seem to be men who are pretty sharp in the ways of the world? Editors, Printers, Hotel Clerks, Bankers, Telegraph Operators, Merchants, and many other professions and occupations seem to have a special knack of hitting the right number. The people enumerated have the best means of fully convincing themselves that the statements made by the company are reliable and true, and that as sure as the sun rises on the sixteenth of December next, the semi-annual extraordinary distribution will take place at New Orleans, under the sole management of Generals G. T. Beauregard and Jubal A. Early, when over a half of million of dollars will be distributed. The full particulars of which can be had of M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., or same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York City, N. Y. *

Stands Alone.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking powder is free from all substances detrimental to health. In these respects it stands alone. Who can tell how many invalids and tender children have fallen victims to the dangerous adulterations practised upon food? Obtain pure articles only.

Coal.

500 tons just received (and more behind to come when that is sold), of the purest scrt, and not too much OIL in it, will last well and give good heat, and will not burn up in a minute. Price as low as any. Give me a trial.

Practical Economy.

Before Patapsco Baking Powders was patented and placed on the market, consumers had to pay 50 cents per pound for the Old Rut Powders. You can now buy Patapsco for about one-half that amount. This accounts for the popularity of Patapsco.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F. BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

THE SUN FOR 1880.

THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January 1st until December 31st it will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, the SUN believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that is the law controlling its daily make-up. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read THE SUN; and they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs, THE SUN believes that the only guide of policy should be common sense, inspired by genuine American principles and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization, or interest. It is for all, but of none. It will continue to praise what is good and reprobate what is evil, taking care that its language is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misunderstood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface; it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser with two cents. It hates injustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abhors frauds, pities fools, and deplores misconceptions of every species. It will continue throughout the year 1880 to chastise the first class, instruct the second, and discountenance the third. All honest men, with honest convictions, whether sound or mistaken are its friends. And THE SUN makes no bones of telling the truth to its friends and about its friends whenever occasion arises for plain speaking.

These are the principles upon which THE SUN will be conducted during the year to come.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. Four years ago next November the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was thwarted by an abominable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 1880? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant, and insolent Administration intrenched at Washington. THE SUN did something toward dislodging the gang and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves to places from which they were driven by the indignation of the people. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring the answers to these momentous questions. THE SUN will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit them clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.

Thus, with a habit of philosophical good humor in looking at the minor affairs of life, and in great things a steadfast purpose to maintain the rights of the people and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressors, THE SUN is prepared to write a truthful, instructive, and at the same time entertaining history of 1880.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1 20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

VEST POCKET CURE

25 DYSPEPSIA 25

CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, Bapt. It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who have written this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics, Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D., Col. Va. It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient, without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward P. E., Va. Conf. About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Failing in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had
